Eileen McDermott has worked in the library of Beaufort College in Navan, Co Meath since 2009. She started out with the Library project in Larkin Community College in Dublin city back in 2002. She has a degree in English and Philosophy, an MA in English Literature and Publishing and subsequently completed the Postgraduate Diploma in Library and Information Studies in UCD in 2000. She has spent time as a bookseller, a church caretaker, a cleaner, a coach and a waitress, all of which proved to be excellent preparation for her current position.
